

Sussex Archaeology Symposium

Saturday 21st March 2026

Kings Church Hall, Brooks Road, Lewes, BN7 2BY
(and online)

A Sussex Archaeology & History Event

9.15-9.50am	REGISTRATION	Tea or Coffee, bookstalls and stands
9.50-10.00am	Dr David Rudling	Chairman's Welcome
10.00-10.40am	James Kenny	Priory Park (Chichester) Archaeology Project, 2016-2025
10.40-11.20am	Dr Jon Baczkowski	Rattle Road, Westham, the investigation of a significant coastal landscape
11.20-11.45am	COFFEE & BISCUITS	Visit the bookstalls & stands
11.45-12.15pm	Simon Stevens	Battling the on-line experts - recent archaeological work on Bronze Age and Roman enclosure sites in the Hailsham area
12.15-12.45pm	Alex Bliss	'Come along like buses': two recent Bronze Age metalwork deposits from Ashurst and Elsted, West Sussex
12.45-1.15pm	David Millum	Culver Archaeology Project (CAP) Comes of Age
1.15-2.00pm	LUNCH BREAK	Visit the bookstalls and stands
2.00-2.30pm	Dr Justine Bayley	The curious case of the Chichester crucibles
2.30-3.00pm	Nathalie Cohen	Archaeology at Bodiam: 100 years of investigation
3.00-3.30pm	James Brown	Highdown Revisited: A Summer of Archaeology at Highdown Hill
3.30-3.50pm	TEA AND BISCUITS	Visit the bookstalls and stands
3.50-4.25pm	Paul Reed	How long is a piece of string: The knowledge of the medieval master builder
4.25-4.55pm	Jo Seaman	The Mint House, Pevensey: The Next Chapter
4.55pm	Dr David Rudling	Thanks & Disperse

Conference fees (scan the QR code to book)

Early Bird (ends 13th March): £20 In Person, £15 Online
(Enter the code EARLYBIRD or ONLINE when booking)

Full Price (from 14th March): £25 In Person, £18 Online

Subscribers to our online archaeology lecture series can book for £18 in person or £13 online

Further details from Sussex Archaeology and History www.sussexarchaeology.org